

Creative Business Lawyer Client Pledge™

As your Creative Business Lawyer, I pledge to:

- Learn as much about you, as a person, as you are willing to share.
- Encourage and support your Greater Good.
- Never surprise you with an invoice.
- Tell you if I don't know the answer to your question and then find the answer you need.
- Bring in help if and when I need it.
- Return calls and emails promptly and proactively keep you informed on issues relevant to our relationship.
- Recognize we are all human and can make mistakes.
- Introduce you to people I think might be able to help you.
- Have your back if you're ever threatened.
- Celebrate your successes as if they were my own.
- Love you like a member of the family.
